Policies and procedures for nomination as candidates for Board Director

The Board of Directors of the Company consists of internal Directors who are familiar with the key business areas of the Company, specifically, civil engineering, building and administrative matters, and have adequate knowledge, experience and capabilities as required and external independent Directors who have been engaged in management in other organizations over many years with extensive experience and discernment. The Articles of Incorporation stipulate that the number of Board Directors shall not exceed 12.

A balance of knowledge, experience, and capabilities as well as diversity and scope are taken into account so that the Board of Directors as a whole can contribute to the sustainable growth and the increase of corporate value. Considering such composition of the Board of Directors, the election of senior management executives and nomination of candidates for Board Director are proposed to the Board of Directors, and deliberated and determined, based on such factors as ability to make proper and prompt decisions with well-balanced knowledge, experience and capabilities, high awareness of compliance, and personality to be a respectable person by President, Representative Director, and Directors in charge of human resources with the proper involvement of external independent Directors by seeking their opinions.

Policy on independence of external Board Directors

The Company's policy is to elect external Board Directors who can fulfill their duties independently and objectively and have no conflict of interest with shareholders. Independence of the external Board Directors is judged in accordance with the Companies Act and the independence criteria provided by the Tokyo Stock Exchange.

The Company has nominated him as a candidate because it judges that he will continue to appropriately execute his duties such as supervision of the Company's management.

- Notes:
- Mr. Fujita is a candidate for external Board Director.
 - Pursuant to the provisions of Article 427, paragraph 1 of the Companies Act, the Company has entered into an agreement with Mr. Fujita to limit his liabilities for damage under Article 423, paragraph 1 of the Companies Act. Pursuant to Article 29, paragraph 2 of the Articles of Incorporation of the Company, the Company limits his liability for damages to the minimum liability amount provided in Article 425, paragraph 1 of the Companies Act. If the reelection of Mr. Fujita is approved, the Company plans to renew the agreement with him.
 - As Mr. Fujita does not contravene any of the independence criteria provided for by "Guidelines for Listing III 5. (3)-2" of the Tokyo Stock Exchange (TSE), the Company judges that his independence is maintained and there is no possibility that conflict of interest may occur between Mr. Fujita and general shareholders. If the reelection of Mr. Fujita is approved, the Company plans to reappoint him as an independent officer and notify TSE of such reappointment.
 - Significant concurrent positions held at other organizations and the relationships between these organizations and the Company
Fujitsu Marketing Limited has business relationship with the Company, including delivery of computers. Sales from the Company has been less than 0.5% of Fujitsu Marketing Limited's sales for the last three years and the impact of the Company on Fujitsu Marketing Limited is minimal. There is no other business relationship for the last three years between Fujitsu Marketing Limited and the Company, and the Company judges that there is no special interest between them.
 - Fujitsu Limited, for which Mr. Fujita served as Director, received a cease and desist order and a payment order from the Japan Fair Trade Commission for violating the Anti-Monopoly Act in relation to the delivery of network facilities for secure electricity supply after an on-site inspection by the members of the commission in May 2015. Although Mr. Fujita was unaware of the facts until those situations came into light, he had consistently provided suggestions based on his responsibility as global corporate and from a perspective of compliance obligation and attempted to draw attention to the company. After the incident, he immediately has made recommendations at Board of Directors' meetings and other meetings, including demanding investigation and appropriate preventive measures such as thorough awareness of compliance and the systems and operations for its implementation.
 - Mr. Fujita has never served as an officer or a business executive of the Company or a specified affiliated business operator for the Company.
 - Mr. Fujita does not plan to receive a large amount of cash or other property from the Company or a specified affiliated business operator for the Company, and has never received such payment for the last two years.

8. Mr. Fujita is not a spouse, relative within the third degree of consanguinity or of similar status of a business executive of the Company or a business operator that has specific relations with the Company.
9. Mr. Fujita has no special opinion about the above description of his career summary, etc.

- Ms. Kitagawa is a candidate for external Board Director.
 - Pursuant to the provisions of Article 427, paragraph 1 of the Companies Act, the Company has entered into an agreement with Ms. Kitagawa to limit her liabilities for damage under Article 423, paragraph 1 of the Companies Act. Pursuant to Article 29, paragraph 2 of the Articles of Incorporation of the Company, the Company limits her liability for damages to the minimum liability amount provided in Article 425, paragraph 1 of the Companies Act. If the reelection of Ms. Kitagawa is approved, the Company plans to renew the agreement with her.
 - As Ms. Kitagawa does not contravene any of the independence criteria provided for by "Guidelines for Listing III 5. (3)-2" of the Tokyo Stock Exchange (TSE), the Company judges that her independence is maintained and there is no possibility that conflict of interest may occur between Ms. Kitagawa and general shareholders. If the reelection of Ms. Kitagawa is approved, the Company plans to reappoint her as an independent officer and notify TSE of such reappointment.
 - Significant concurrent positions held at other organizations and the relationships between these organizations and the Company
The Company has business relationship with Tsukishima Soko Co., Ltd., including contract construction. Sales from Tsukishima Soko Co., Ltd. has been less than 0.5% of the consolidated net sales of the Company for the last three years (from the FYE March 31, 2016 to the FYE March 31, 2018); the impact of Tsukishima Soko Co., Ltd. on the Company is minimal. Tsukishima Soko Co., Ltd. has entered into a lease agreement with the Company. Lease income from the Company has been less than 0.5% of the net sales of Tsukishima Soko Co., Ltd. for the last three years. The impact of the Company on Tsukishima Soko Co., Ltd. is minimal. The Company judges that there is no special interest between Tsukishima Soko Co., Ltd. and the Company.
The Company has had no business relationship for the last three years with any other organizations where the candidate holds significant concurrent positions and there is no special interest between them and the Company.
 - Ms. Kitagawa has never served as an officer or a business executive of the Company or a specified affiliated business operator for the Company.
 - Ms. Kitagawa does not plan to receive a large amount of cash or other property from the Company or a specified affiliated business operator for the Company, and has never received such payment for the last two years.
 - Ms. Kitagawa is not a spouse, relative within the third degree of consanguinity or of similar status of a business executive of the Company or a business operator that has specific relations with the Company.

8. Ms. Kitagawa has no special opinion about the above description of her career summary, etc.

The Company has nominated him as a candidate because it judges that he will contribute to the auditing, etc. of the Company's business execution based on his extensive working experience.

Policies and procedures for nomination as candidate for Audit & Supervisory Board Member

Personnel able to provide valuable advice and suggestions to the Board of Directors are considered for nomination as candidates for Audit & Supervisory Board Members by the President, Representative Director, and Directors in charge of human resources by taking into account knowledge on the Company's areas of business, insight into financial matters and diverse viewpoints on corporate management, and are proposed to the Board of Directors, and deliberated and determined with the proper involvement of external independent Directors by seeking their opinions after hearing the views of the Audit & Supervisory Board and receiving its approval.

Proposal No. 4 Election of One Substitute Audit & Supervisory Board Member

The Company also requests approval for the election of one substitute Audit & Supervisory Board Member to be ready to fill a vacant position in case the incumbent number of Audit & Supervisory Board Members should fall below the number required by laws and regulations.

External Audit & Supervisory Board Members' replacement by substitute Audit & Supervisory Board Member is conditional on the number of external Audit & Supervisory Board Members falling below the number required by laws and regulations, and its term of office will expire when that of the predecessor expires.

The validity of the election of substitute Audit & Supervisory Board Member can be nullified by resolution of the Board of Directors if the consent of the Audit & Supervisory Board has been obtained; provided, however, that it is only in a time before assuming office. In addition, the consent of the Audit & Supervisory Board has been obtained for the submission of this proposal.

The candidate for substitute Audit & Supervisory Board Member is as follows:

Relationship of special interest between the candidate and the Company

There is no special interest between the candidate and the Company (or any other officers or candidates of the Company).

Reasons for nomination as candidate for substitute external Audit & Supervisory Board Member

The candidate has specialist knowledge and experience obtained through working over many years as attorney at law, and the Company proposes his nomination as a candidate because it judges that he will impartially and justly execute his duties as external Audit & Supervisory Board Member. Mr. Hiramatsu has never been directly involved in the management of a company. However, the Company judges that he will be able to fulfill his duties as external Audit & Supervisory Board Member based on his knowledge and experience, etc.

- Notes:
1. Mr. Hiramatsu is a candidate for substitute external Audit & Supervisory Board Member.
 2. If Mr. Hiramatsu assumes office of external Audit & Supervisory Board Member, pursuant to the provisions of Article 427, paragraph 1 of the Companies Act, the Company plans to enter into an agreement with him to limit his liabilities for damage under Article 423, paragraph 1 of the Companies Act and pursuant to Article 38, paragraph 2 of the Articles of Incorporation of the Company, the Company limits his liability for damages to the minimum liability amount provided in Article 425, paragraph 1 of the Companies Act.
 3. As Mr. Hiramatsu does not contravene any of the independence criteria provided for by "Guidelines for Listing III 5. (3)-2" of the Tokyo Stock Exchange (TSE), the Company judges that his independence is maintained and there is no possibility that conflict of interest may occur between Mr. Hiramatsu and general shareholders. If he assumes office of external Audit & Supervisory Board Member, the Company plans to appoint him as an independent officer and notify TSE of such appointment.
 4. Significant concurrent positions held at other organizations and the relationships between these organizations and the Company

Nishimura & Asahi and the Company have never entered into a consulting agreement. Regarding the relationship between Nishimura & Asahi and the Company for the last three years, the Company has received legal consultation from a different attorney who belonged to Nishimura & Asahi during the FYE March 31, 2016; however, the transaction amount was ¥10,000,000 or less. There was no business transaction during the FYE March 31, 2017 and the FYE March 31, 2018, and the Company judges that there is no special interest between Nishimura & Asahi and the Company.

There has been no business relationship between Sanrio Company, Ltd. and the Company for the last three years and there is no special interest between Sanrio Company, Ltd. and the Company.

5. Mr. Hiramatsu has never served as an officer or a business executive of the Company or a specified affiliated business operator for the Company.
6. Mr. Hiramatsu does not plan to receive a large amount of cash or other property from the Company or a specified affiliated business operator for the Company, and has never received such payment for the last two years.
7. Mr. Hiramatsu is not a spouse, relative within the third degree of consanguinity or of similar status of a business executive of the Company or a business operator that has specific relations with the Company.
8. Each Audit & Supervisory Board Member has no special opinion about nominating Mr. Hiramatsu
9. Mr. Hiramatsu has no special opinion about the above description of his career summary, etc.
